5.8. Bonds and other issue-grade securities of the Bank (except for issue-grade securities convertible into shares) shall be placed in compliance with a relative decision of the Bank's Supervisory Council.

VI. SHAREHOLDER'S RIGHTS

6.1. Each of the Bank's ordinary shares entitles the shareholder, its owner, to an equal scope of rights.

Shareholders owning ordinary shares of the Bank have the right to:

- Participate in the General Shareholders Meeting with the right to vote on all issues within its terms of reference (participate in managing the Bank's business);
- In relevant instances and in accordance with provisions of the applicable legislation and this Charter, obtain information on the Bank's business and gain access to its accounting and other documents;

- Appeal against resolutions of the Bank's management bodies which have civil law consequences in relevant instances and in accordance with the procedure established by the applicable legislation;
- On behalf of the Bank, demand reimbursement of losses inflicted on the Bank;
- On behalf of the Bank, challenge the Bank's transactions entered into by it, on the grounds specified in Article 174 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation or the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" and demand application of consequences of their invalidity and application of consequences of invalidity of the Bank's void transactions;
- Participate in allocation of the Bank's profit (receive dividends); and
- In case of the Bank's liquidation, receive a part of the Bank's property remaining after settlement with creditors, or its value.

Shareholders who are owners of Type 1 preference shares and Type 2 preference shares do not have voting rights at the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless otherwise stipulated by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

Shareholders owning the Bank's Type 1 preference shares and Type 2 preference shares are entitled to:

- Receive dividends on Type 1 preference shares and Type 2 preference shares based on the results for the first three, six and nine months and/ or for the whole reporting year and determined by the General Shareholders Meeting on the recommendation of the Supervisory Council of the Bank;
- Participate in the General Shareholders Meeting with the right to vote in the cases stipulated by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" (participate in managing the Bank's business);
- In relevant instances and in accordance with provisions of the applicable legislation and this Charter, to obtain information on the Bank's business and gain access to its accounting and other documents;
- Appeal against resolutions of the Bank's management bodies which have civil law consequences in relevant instances and in accordance with the procedure established by the applicable legislation;
- On behalf of the Bank, demand reimbursement of losses inflicted on the Bank;
- On behalf of the Bank, challenge the Bank's transactions entered into by it, on the grounds specified in Article 174 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation or the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" and demand application of consequences of their invalidity and application of consequences of invalidity of the Bank's void transactions;
- In case of the Bank's liquidation, receive a part of the Bank's property remaining after settlement with creditors, or its value.

The Bank's shareholders are entitled to dispose of their shareholdings without consent of other shareholders or that of the Bank.

Shareholders can also exercise other rights stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation and this Charter.

6.2. The Bank's shareholders have statutory pre-emptive rights to subscribe for additional shares to be placed by an open subscription and issue-grade securities to be converted into shares, pro rata to the number of their existing shares of the same category (type).

6.3. The Bank's shareholders voting against or not participating in the vote on the share placement by a close subscription to shares or issue-grade securities convertible into shares, have a pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares to be placed by close subscription in the amount pro rata to the number of the shares of this category (type) they own. Such right shall not apply to shares or other issue-grade securities convertible into shares to be placed by closed subscription only among the shareholders, if the shareholders can acquire a whole number of shares or other issue-grade securities convertible into shares to be placed pro rata to the number of the shares of appropriate category (type) they own.

6.4. If the decision underlying the placement of additional shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares is made by the Bank's General Shareholders Meeting, the pre-emptive right shall be given to the persons who are shareholders of the Bank as at the date to determine (cut off) the persons eligible to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting; and if the decision is made by the Bank's Supervisory Council, than – to the persons who are shareholders of the Bank as at the tenth day from the day the Bank's Supervisory Council makes the decision, unless a later date is set out by such a decision.

6.5. The persons having the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares shall be notified of their pre-emptive right to be exercised under the procedure specified for the notice on convening the General Shareholders Meeting.

The notice should contain information on the number of the shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares to be placed, the offering price of these securities or the procedure for determining it (including when exercising a preemptive right to purchase the securities), or an indication that the price or the procedure for determining it will be stipulated by the Bank's Supervisory Council prior to the start of placement of the securities, as well as information on the procedure for determining the number of securities which each person having the pre-emptive right can acquire, the procedure for submitting applications by the persons for acquiring the shares or issue-grade securities convertible into shares to be placed, and the deadlines for the application submission to the Bank (hereinafter referred to as the pre-emptive right validity period).

6.6. The person having pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares or issue-grade securities convertible into shares can, within the pre-emptive right validity period, fully or partially exercise its pre-emptive right by submitting an application for acquisition of the securities to be placed and performance of its obligation to pay therefor.

Until the pre-emptive right validity period expires, the Bank shall not be entitled to offer additional shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares to any persons not having such pre-emptive right.

6.7. If while exercising the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares, and when consolidating the shares, the shareholder fails to acquire the whole number of shares then share fractions are to be formed (hereinafter referred to as fractional shares).

Fractional shares entitle the shareholder, their owner, to the rights vested in a share of the relative category (type) pro rata to the fraction of the whole share it makes. For the purpose of recording the total number of outstanding shares in the present Charter, all outstanding fractional shares are summed up. If the summing results in a fractional number, the quantity of the outstanding shares is expressed by the fractional number. Fractional shares are floated in the same way as whole shares do. If a person acquires two or more fractional shares of the same category (type), these shares shall form one whole share and/or fractional shares equal to the sum of these fractional shares.

6.8. Unless otherwise required by the federal law, shareholders who own voting shares are entitled to demand that the Bank should buy out all or part of their shares in the case of:

- A resolution taken by the General Shareholders Meeting on the Bank's reorganization or on entering into or a further approval of a major transaction involving property accounting for more than 50 per cent of the balance sheet value of the Bank's assets according to its financial statements as at the latest reporting date (including interested-party transactions), if they voted against the resolution on its reorganization, or on entering into and further approval of the transaction, or they did not participate in the voting on these issues; and

- Any amendment or addition made to the present Charter (the adoption of a resolution by the General Shareholders Meeting serving as the basis for making amendments and addenda to this Charter) or approval of the revised Charter, which restrict their rights, if they voted against the relative resolution or did not participate in the voting on these issues;

- Adoption of a resolution by the General Shareholders Meeting on issues covered by Clause 3, Article 7.2 and Subclause 19.2, Clause 1, Article 48 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", if they voted against the resolution or did not take part in the voting.

The list of shareholders eligible to demand that the Bank should buy out their shares shall be made on the basis of data contained in the list of persons eligible to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting with agenda items where voting, in accordance with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", resulted in the right to demand share buyout, and shareholder demands to buy out their shares submitted to the Bank.

6.9. The Bank shall inform its shareholders of their right to have their shares bought out by the Bank, as well as the buy-out price and procedure, including the address/ addresses where the shareholders registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register are to deliver their share buy-out demands.

In case of putting on the agenda the issues the voting on which in conformity with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" can cause initiating the right for the shareholders to demand the buy-out by the Bank, the notice of such a General Shareholders Meeting shall include the information on such right, the price and procedure for such share buy-out.

6.10. A demand for a share buy-out by a shareholder registered in the Bank's Shareholders' Register, or a revocation of such a demand shall be presented to the Registrar as a written document signed by the shareholder and delivered by mail or in person against signature, or, if envisaged by the rules regulating the Registrar's activities as an electronic document signed by a qualified electronic signature. The rules may provide for an option of such an electronic document being signed by a simple or unqualified electronic signature. In such a case, the electronic document signed by a simple or unqualified electronic document shall be deemed equal to the hard-copy document hand-written by the shareholder.

A share buy-out demand presented by a shareholder registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register should bear information to allow for the identification of the shareholder presenting the demand, and also the number of shares of each category (type) subject to the buy-out demand.

Any shareholder not registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register shall exercise the right to demand a buy-out by the Bank of its shareholding by giving a relative instruction to the person accounting its rights to the Bank's shares. In this case, such an instruction shall be given in compliance with the applicable Russian legislation in securities and shall include information on the number of shares of each category (type) subject to the buy-out demand of the shareholder.

6.11. Such shareholders' share buy-out demands shall be presented to or revoked within 45 days from the date when a relative resolution is adopted by the General Shareholders Meeting. Revocation of the share buy-out demand is only possible with respect of all shares of the Bank presented for the buy-out. A shareholder's share buy-out demand or a revocation thereof shall be deemed presented to the Bank the day it is received by the Registrar from the shareholder registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register, or the day the Registrar receives from a nominal shareholder registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register a notice stating a declaration of the shareholder's intention.

6.12. Upon expiry of the time brackets stated in Clause 6.11 hereof, the Bank is to buy-out within 30 days the shares from the shareholders included in the list of persons eligible to demand a buy-out by the Bank of the shares they own, or within 5 business days to deliver a notice to the Bank's Registrar stating that the Bank shall not exercise any share buy-out under Clause 8, Article 76 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies". If such a demand for a share buy-out is presented by any person non included in the above list, the Bank shall within five business days after the expiry of the time brackets stated in Clause 6.11 hereof, send its refusal to satisfy the demands.

6.13. The Bank shall buy out the shares at the price specified in the notice of the General Shareholders Meeting which is to consider the issues the voting on which in conformity with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" can cause initiating the right for the shareholders to demand the buy-out. The total amount of funds the Bank can channel into the share buy-out shall not exceed 10 per cent of the Bank's equity (capital) dated the date when the decision initiating the right for the buy-out demand is made. If the total amount of shares demanded to be bought out exceeds the amount of shares the Bank can actually buy out subject to the above limitation, the shares shall be bought out pro rata to the demands submitted.

6.14. The shares bought out by the Bank shall be at the disposal of the Bank. Such shares shall not be voting; neither shall they be considered in vote counting, nor shall they earn dividends. Such shares shall be realized by a price not lower than their market value within one year after the title to their ownership is assigned to the Bank, otherwise the General Shareholders Meeting shall make a decision to decrease the Bank's charter capital by redeeming such shares.

VII. PLACEMENT OF SHARES AND OTHER ISSUE-GRADE SECURITIES. PURCHASE AND BUY OUT OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES

7.1. The Bank shall place its shares and other issue-grade securities in compliance with the applicable Russian legislation. The Bank is entitled to place additional shares and other issue-grade securities through subscription or conversion.

The Bank may place its shares by conversion under a relative resolution of the Bank's General Shareholders Meeting.

7.2. The Bank can offer its shares and issue-grade securities convertible into shares by either open or closed subscription except for cases when closed subscription is restricted by the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation.

Additional shares and other issue-grade securities of the Bank eligible for subscription are only placed after their full payment.

Placement through open subscription of the Bank's shares (issue-grade securities convertible into shares) constituting 25 per cent or less of the outstanding registered shares requires a unanimous decision of the Bank's Supervisory Council (retired or removed Supervisory Council members shall not vote).

7.3. Placement of the Bank's shares (issue-grade securities convertible into shares) by closed subscription shall only be performed on the basis of a decision of the General Shareholders Meeting to increase the Bank's charter capital by issuing new shares (issue-grade securities convertible into shares) approved by a three-quarter majority of voting shares participating in such a General Shareholders Meeting, unless otherwise stipulated by federal laws.

7.4. Placement by open subscription of ordinary shares constituting more than 25 per cent of the outstanding ordinary shares shall only be performed on the basis of a decision of the General Shareholders Meeting approved by a three-quarter majority of voting shares participating in such a General Shareholders Meeting.

7.5. Placement by open subscription of ordinary shares constituting more than 25 per cent of the outstanding ordinary shares shall only be performed on the basis of a decision of the General Shareholders Meeting approved by a three-quarter majority of voting shares participating in such a General Shareholders Meeting.

7.6. Payment for shares can be made either in Russian Rubles, or in any foreign currency, as well as contribution-in-kind as specified by the Bank of Russia. Limits for contribution-in-kind into a charter capital of the Bank, as well as types of foreign currencies to pay in for the Bank's shares shall be determined by the Bank of Russia.

If the Bank's charter capital is to be increased at the account of its property by placing additional shares, such shares shall be offered to all shareholders, with each shareholder being offered shares of the same category (type) as the shares they hold pro rate to their shareholdings.

Payment for the Bank's additional shares to be placed by subscription shall be made at the price that is determined, or for determining which the procedure is set forth by the Bank's Supervisory Board, in accordance with Clause 7.13 hereof, but no lower than their nominal value. The placement price of the additional shares placed by public offering, or the procedure for determining it, should be contained in the resolution to increase the Bank's charter capital by placing additional shares, unless that resolution stipulates that this price or the procedure for determining it shall be set forth by the Bank's Supervisory Board by the start of the additional share placement.

In the case of in-kind payment for additional shares, the property contributed as such payment shall be appraised by the Bank's Supervisory Council in compliance with Clause 7.13 hereof.

If shares are paid for in kind, market value of such property shall be defined by an appraiser, unless otherwise required by the federal laws. The estimation made by the Bank's Supervisory Council cannot exceed the estimation made by such appraiser.

7.7. Shares with the ownership title transferred to the Bank shall not be voting; neither shall they be considered in vote counting, nor shall they earn dividends. Such shares shall be realized by a price not lower than their market value within one year after the title to their ownership is assigned to the Bank, otherwise the General Shareholders Meeting shall make a decision to decrease the Bank's charter capital by redeeming such shares.

7.8. The Bank is entitled to buy out the outstanding shares on the basis of a decision made by the Supervisory Council. The Bank is not entitled to make any decision on the outstanding share buy-out, if the nominal value of such outstanding shares is less than 90 per cent of the Bank's charter capital.

The decision on a share buy-out shall specify the category (type) of the shares to be bought out, number of the shares to be bought out by the Bank in each category (type), buy-out price, form and schedule of payment, as well as time brackets for the shareholders to present their applications to sell to the Bank the shares they own or to revoke such applications.

7.9. The shares bought out by the Bank shall be paid for in money. The time brackets for the shareholders to present their applications to sell to the Bank the shares they own or to revoke such applications cannot be less than 30 days, with the time brackets for the Bank to pay for the bought-out shares cannot be more than 15 days as from the date the time for the application presentation or revocation expires. The price for the Bank's buy-out of shares shall be determined in compliance with Clause 7.13 hereof.

Each shareholder owning shares of certain categories (types), resolved to be bought out, is entitled to sell such shares, with the Bank being obliged to buy them. If the total number of the shares applied for the sale to the Bank exceeds the number of shares the Bank can actually buy subject to restrictions imposed by Clause 7.8 hereof, the shares shall be bought out from shareholders pro rata to their applications.

No later than 20 days before the opening time bracket for the shareholders to present their application to sell the shares they own or to revoke such applications, the Bank shall inform shareholders owning shares of certain categories (types), which are decided to be bought out. The notice shall contain information specified in paragraph 2, Clause 7.8 hereof. The notice shall be delivered to the shareholders owning shares of certain categories (types), which are decided to be bought out, following the procedure set out for a notice on holding a General Shareholders Meeting.

7.10. The Bank is not entitled to purchase its outstanding ordinary shares if:

- The charter capital of the Bank has not been paid in full;
- The Bank shows on the purchase date, or will show as a result of such purchase, any signs of insolvency (bankruptcy) in accordance with the legislative acts of the Russian Federation on insolvency (bankruptcy) of credit institutions; or
- The value of the Bank's equity (capital) is less than the sum of its charter capital and reserve fund dated the purchase date or will become less than this sum as a result of such purchase.

The Bank is not entitled to purchase its outstanding preference shares if:

- The charter capital of the Bank has not been paid in full;

- The Bank shows on the purchase date, or will show as a result of such purchase, any signs of insolvency (bankruptcy) in accordance with the legislative acts of the Russian Federation on insolvency (bankruptcy) of credit institutions; or

- The value of the Bank's equity (capital) is less than the sum of its charter capital and reserve fund dated the purchase date or will become less than this sum as a result of such purchase.

7.11. No shareholder of the Bank can be exempt from payment for its shareholding including by set-off of money claims to the Bank, except for set-off of money claims related to payment of stated dividends in monetary form.

7.12. Unless otherwise stipulated by federal laws, the acquisition, including any donation, and/ or receiving in asset management (hereinafter referred to as acquisition) of more than one per cent of the Bank's shares as a result of one transaction or more transactions performed by a legal entity or an individual shall require a notice to be delivered to the Bank of Russia, and in the case of acquisition of more than 10 per cent – a prior approval by the Bank of Russia.

The prior consent of the Bank of Russia is also required when an individual or legal entity, as the result of a single transaction or several transactions, establishes direct or indirect (through third parties) control over Bank shareholders holding more than 10 per cent of the Bank's shares (hereinafter, the establishment of control over Bank shareholders).

The requirements established by this Clause also extend to cases of the acquisition of more than one per cent of Bank shares, more than 10 per cent of Bank shares, and/ or the establishment of control over Bank shareholders by a group of entities, recognized as such under the Federal Law "On Protection of Competition".

7.13. If the Charter requires that the price (or appraisal) of the property, as well as the price of the share placement or share buy-out, or the procedure for determining it, be determined by the Bank's Supervisory Council, then they shall be based on their market value.

The price (appraisal) of the property or services related to an interested-party transaction shall be determined by majority vote of the Supervisory Council members who are not interested in such transaction regulated by provisions of Clause 3, Article 83 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

Market value of such property shall be defined by an appraiser.

The appraiser's services are mandatory when determining the price of the Bank's buy-out of shares from shareholders in compliance with Article 76 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", as well as in other cases if directly stipulated in the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

7.14. Acquisition by any person of more than 30 per cent of the total shares of the Bank which are considered voting shares under the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", together with the shares already belonging to the person shall be performed in compliance with the procedures set in the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

VIII. SHAREHOLDERS REGISTER

8.1. An organization which holds a license required by the law (a registrar) shall maintain the Bank's Shareholders Register and act as the Bank's counting board.

The Bank shall ensure that its Shareholders Register is maintained and stored in compliance with the requirements set by the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation, starting from the Bank's state registration date.

8.2 Upon request of a shareholder or nominee shareholder, the Bank's Shareholders Register holder shall confirm their rights to shares by producing a statement from the Shareholders Register, provided that such statement shall not constitute a security.

IX. DIVIDENDS

9.1. Based on its performance in the first quarter, six months, nine months of a reporting year and/or based on annual performance for a reporting year, the Bank may resolve (announce) to pay dividends on the outstanding shares. Such resolution (announcement) on dividend payment may be made within three months after the end of the respective first quarter, six-month or nine-month period of a reporting year.

The Bank shall pay the announced dividends on shares of each category (type). Dividends shall be paid in monetary form. Dividends shall be payable from the Bank's net profit (after-tax earnings). For the purpose of dividend calculation, the net profit is determined according to the Bank's accounting (financial) statements.

A resolution (announcement) on dividend payment shall be made by the General Shareholders Meeting. Such resolution shall determine the dividend amount for shares of each category (type), form of payment, and date when the list of persons entitled to receive dividend is determined. Resolution on the date for determination of the list of persons entitled to receive dividend shall only be made on recommendation of the Bank's Supervisory Council. The dividend amount may not exceed the dividend amount recommended by the Supervisory Council.

9.2. The Bank cannot decide on (announce) the dividend payment on shares if:

- The charter capital of the Bank has not been paid in full;
- All of the shares which are to be bought out under Article 76 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" have not actually been bought out;
- The Bank shows on the decision date, or will show as a result of such dividend payment, any signs of insolvency (bankruptcy) in compliance with the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation;
- On the decision date, the value of the Bank's equity (capital) is less than the sum of its charter capital and reserve fund; or will become less than this sum as a result of such decision; or
- In other cases stipulated by federal laws.

9.3. The Bank cannot pay out the announced dividends on shares if on the payment date:

- The Bank shows on the decision date or will show as a result of the dividend payment, any signs of insolvency (bankruptcy) in compliance with the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation;
- On the decision date, the value of the Bank's equity (capital) is less than the sum of its charter capital and reserve fund; or will become less than this sum as a result of such decision;
- In other cases stipulated by federal laws.

After these circumstances cease to exist, the Bank shall be liable to pay the announced dividends to its shareholders.

FUNDS

10.1. To ensure its financial soundness, the Bank shall create reserves (funds), including provisions for securities devaluation, in compliance with the procedures for their formation and use set by the Bank of Russia. The Bank of Russia shall also set minimal amounts of such reserves (funds).

The Bank shall deposit part of the raised funds as mandatory reserves with the Bank of Russia, it shall also form insurance funds and other reserves in compliance with the procedures set by the Bank of Russia.

10.2. The Bank shall form a reserve fund in compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation, which cannot be less than 5 per cent of the Bank's charter capital.

The reserve fund is formed by making mandatory annual payments out of the net profit gained in the reporting year. The annual payment to the reserve fund cannot be less than 5 per cent of the net profit until the fund amounts to 5 per cent of the Bank's charter capital.

Payments to the reserve fund from the net profit of the accounting year shall be made after the General Shareholders Meeting approves the annual financial statements.

The reserve fund can only be used to cover the Bank's losses incurred as a result of the accounting year, as well as to redeem the Bank's bonds and buy out the Bank's shares if no other funds are available. The reserve fund cannot be used for any other purpose.

The Bank shall be entitled to form other funds in compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

XI. SAFEGUARDING CUSTOMER INTERESTS

11.1. The Bank shall safeguard the money funds and other valuables entrusted by its customers and correspondents. Their safety is secured and guaranteed by all movable and immovable property of the Bank, its money funds and reserves formed in compliance with legislation of the Russian Federation and this Charter, as well as measures to ensure financial stability and liquidity of the Bank undertaken by the Bank in compliance with the procedures set by the Bank of Russia.

11.2. The Bank shall be permanently ready to duly discharge its liabilities by regulating its balance structure in compliance with mandatory ratios set by the Bank of Russia for credit institutions' performance.

11.3. Money funds or any valuables held by individuals and legal entities on their accounts or deposits with the Bank, or kept in custody with the Bank, as well as electronic fund balances, can only be subject to attachment by court, arbitrage, or a judge; and also by a decision of preliminary investigation agencies accompanied by a court decision.

11.4. The Bank shall keep in secrecy information on transactions, bank accounts and deposits of its customers and correspondents. The Bank's employees shall be obliged to safeguard the secrecy of any transaction, account or deposit of the Bank's customers or correspondents, and of any other information classified by the Bank as secret if it complies with federal laws.

Russia and the Bank's Regulation on Preparing, Convening and Holding General Shareholders Meetings approved by the Bank's General Shareholders Meeting.

13.11. An extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting may be called by the Supervisory Council on its own initiative, or at the request of the Statutory Audit Commission, the Bank's auditor, or shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Bank dated the request date.

An extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting at the request of the Statutory Audit Commission, the Bank's auditor, or shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Bank shall be convened by the Supervisory Council within 40 days after the request for convening an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting is made.

If the proposed agenda for an Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting includes the matter of electing members of the Bank's Supervisory Council, then that General Shareholders Meeting should be held within 75 days following the moment the request to hold the Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting is submitted. In this case, the Bank's Supervisory Council is to determine a cut-off date to accept the nominees to be elected members of the Bank's Supervisory Council.

The request for convening an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall contain issues to be included in the agenda of such meeting; it may also contain draft resolutions and proposal as to the form of holding the General Shareholders Meeting. If the request contains a proposal of nominees, then it falls under provisions of Clause 13.9 hereof.

The Supervisory Council shall not be entitled to make any amendment in the wording of issues proposed to be included in the agenda, or relative draft resolutions, or proposed form of the extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting to be convened at the request of the Statutory Audit Commission, the Bank's auditor, or shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares.

The request for the extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting made by shareholder(s) shall contain the names of such shareholder(s) and the number and category (type) of the shares they own. Any request for an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall be signed by the person(s) initiating the request.

Within five days after the request is made by the Statutory Audit Commission, the Bank's auditor, or shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Bank to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting a decision shall be made either to convene such meeting or to reject the request for its convention.

Decision to reject the request to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting made by the Statutory Audit Commission, the Bank's auditor, or shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares of the Bank may be made in the following circumstances:

- The procedure for submitting a request to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting has not been exactly followed;
- Shareholder(s) requesting for an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting do not own the shares specified in paragraph 1 of this Clause;
- Neither of the issues proposed to be included in the General Shareholders Meeting's agenda fall within its terms of reference and/ or comply with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies" or any other applicable legislation.

A decision made by the Bank's Supervisory Council to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting or reasons for a rejection to convene it shall be delivered to the person(s) requesting for such meeting within three days after the day such a decision is made. If such a request to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting enters the Bank from persons not registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register as a direction (instruction) to the persons accounting their rights to the shares, the above decision of the Bank's Supervisory Council shall be delivered to such persons within three days after the decision is made in compliance with the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation on securities for disclosing information and materials to persons exercising their rights under securities.

If the Bank fails to make a decision to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting or to reject the request for its convention within the time brackets set by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", the Bank's body or persons requesting for its convention can appeal to the court to enforce the Bank to hold an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting.

13.12. At a General Shareholders Meeting, the functions of a Counting Board shall be performed by the Bank's Shareholders Register's holder.

13.13. A shareholder may exercise its right to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting either in person or by proxy. Shareholder may at any time change its representative at the meeting or attend it in person.

If a Bank share is owned by several persons, the voting right at the General Shareholders Meeting shall be exercised either by one of such persons at its own discretion or by their common. In both cases powers of such persons are to be duly formalized.

13.14. General Shareholders Meeting shall be deemed authorized (or having a quorum) if attended by shareholders owning in the aggregate more than half of the Bank's outstanding voting shares.

Shareholders shall be recognized as attending the General Shareholders Meeting if they are duly registered to participate therein, including via the website specified in the notice on holding the General Shareholders Meeting, and also if they submit the filled-in ballot papers or fill in ballot papers on the website specified in the notice on holding the General Shareholders Meeting at least two days prior to the date of such a General Shareholders Meeting. Shareholders may fill in electronic ballot papers on-line during the General Shareholders Meeting, if they have not exercised their right to participate in the meeting otherwise.

Shareholders shall be recognized as voting by absentee ballot if their ballot papers are submitted or filled in on the website specified in the notice on the General Shareholders Meeting before the cut-off date for accepting ballot papers.

Shareholders shall also be recognized as attending the General Shareholders Meeting if they give their voting directions (instructions) to the persons accounting their rights to the shares in compliance with the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation on securities, given their declaration of intention is received at least two days prior to the date of the General Shareholders Meeting or to the cut-off date for accepting ballot papers in holding the General Shareholders Meeting by absentee ballot.

If the General Shareholders Meeting's agenda includes issues to be voted by different voters, the quorum requirements for such voting is to be decided on a case-by-case basis. If the necessary quorum is not available for some of such issues, it shall not prevent shareholders from voting under the other issues where voting is made by another composition of votes and where the quorum is sufficient.

If the necessary quorum requirement is not met for holding an annual General Shareholders Meeting, a repeated General Shareholders Meeting with the same agenda must be held. If there is no sufficient quorum for holding an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting, a repeated General Shareholders Meeting with the same agenda may be held.

A repeated General Shareholders Meeting shall be deemed authorized (or having a quorum), if shareholders holding at least 30 per cent of the Bank's outstanding voting shares are present at the meeting.

Notice of a repeated General Shareholders Meeting shall be delivered in compliance with Clauses 13.7 – 13.8 hereof. When holding a repeated General Shareholders Meeting within 40 days after the scheduled General Shareholders Meeting failed, the persons eligible to participate in such a General Shareholders Meeting shall be determined (cut off) as at the date when the persons eligible to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting failed were determined (cut off).

13.15. The General Shareholders Meeting shall be run by Chairman of the Bank's Supervisory Council or, if absent, by one of the Supervisory Council members approved by the Bank's Supervisory Council.

13.16. The General Shareholders Meeting votes on the basis of the principle "one vote per one voting share", except for the cumulative voting to be held in cases stipulated the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

Equal to voting by ballot papers shall be notices with the declaration of intention received by the Bank's registrar from the persons eligible to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting, who are not registered in the Bank's Shareholders Register and who, under the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation on securities, give voting directions (instructions) to the persons accounting their rights for securities.

13.17. Minutes of the General Shareholders Meeting shall be executed within 3 business days after the General Shareholders Meeting date. The Minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson and Secretary of the General Shareholders Meeting.

The Bank or its shareholder shall be entitled to file a claim against a member of the Supervisory Council, President - Chairman of the Management Board and/ or a member of the Management Board to be reimbursed for losses caused to the Bank in the case specified in the second paragraph of Clause 16.2 hereof.

16.6. Persons under the business reputation requirements in accordance with the Federal Law "On Banks and Banking Activities" who have become aware of a fact suggesting that their business reputation is no longer sufficient must notify the Bank thereof in writing within two working days.

XVII. MAJOR TRANSACTIONS, INTERESTED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

17.1. A major transaction is a transaction (a number of interrelated transactions), which is beyond the scope of ordinary business activities and:

- Involves an acquisition, disposal or possibility of disposal by the Bank (whether direct or indirect) of its property (including a loan, credit, pledge or guarantee, acquisition of such a number of shares or other issue-grade securities convertible into the Bank's shares resulting in the Bank's obligation to make a mandatory offer in compliance with the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies"), with the price of book value thereof accounting for or exceeding 25 per cent of the book value of the Bank's assets as determined by its latest financial statements,

- Provides for the Bank's obligation to transfer the property for temporary possession and/ or use, or provide the third person with the right to use intellectual property or with the means of individualization under a license, if the book value thereof accounts for or exceed 25 per cent of the book value of the Bank's assets as determined by its latest financial statements.

The Bank's Supervisory Council shall make a resolution on entering into a major transaction, which would include, in particular, information on possible consequences of the transaction for the Bank's business, and assessment of such a transaction's appropriateness. Resolutions on entering into a major transaction shall be included into the information (materials) to be provided to shareholders when preparing for a General Shareholders Meeting of the Bank to consider the issue on resolving on entering into a major transaction and a further approval thereof.

17.2. Any entering into a major transaction shall be agreed with the Bank's Supervisory Council or General Shareholders Meeting as stipulated by the Federal Law "On Joint- Stock Companies" and this Charter.

17.3. A resolution on entering into a major transaction and a further approval thereof, which involves property with the value accounting for 25 to 50 per cent of the book value of the Bank's property shall require an unanimous approval by all of the members of the Bank's Supervisory Council disregarding the retired ones.

If the Supervisory Council fails to unanimously resolve on entering into a major transaction and a further approval thereof, its members can decide to submit such resolution on entering into a major transaction and a further approval thereof to the General Shareholders Meeting. In this case, a resolution on entering into a major transaction and a further approval thereof shall be made by a majority of the voting shareholders participating in such General Shareholders Meeting.

A resolution on entering into a major transaction or a further approval thereof, which involves property with the value accounting for over 50 per cent of the book value of the Bank's property shall be made at the General Shareholders Meeting and require a three-quarter majority vote by the voting shareholders participating in such General Shareholders Meeting.

17.4. A resolution on entering into a major transaction or on a further approval thereof shall specify its party (parties), beneficiary (beneficiaries), price, subject matter, and other material terms and conditions, as well as a procedure for their determination.

A resolution on entering into a major transaction may also specify the minimal and maximum parameters for the terms and conditions of such a transaction (the highest price limit for a property acquisition or the lowest price limit for a property disposal) or a procedure for the determination thereof, agreement to enter into similar transactions, alternative terms and conditions of such a transaction, and agreement to enter into a major transaction provided that several transactions are entered into simultaneously.

17.5. A interested-party transaction include transactions involving a member of the Supervisory Council, President – Chairman of the Management Board, a member of the Management Board, or a person controlling the Bank, or a person entitled to given instructions binding for the Bank. Such transactions shall be performed by the Bank in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Charter.

The above persons shall be deemed interested in the Bank's performance of the transaction if such persons, their spouses, parents, children, brothers and sisters (whether full- or half-blooded), adoptive parents and adopted children, and/ or persons (entities) under their control are:

- A party to, a beneficiary of, an intermediary or a representative in a transaction;
- A controlling person of a legal entity being a party to, a beneficiary of, an intermediary or a representative in a transaction;

- A member of governance bodies of a legal entity being a party to, a beneficiary of, an intermediary or a representative in a transaction, or a member of governance bodies of a company controlling such a legal entity.

The Bank shall be obliged to notify all members of the Bank's Supervisory Council and those of the Management Board on any interested-party transaction, and if all members of the Bank's Supervisory Council are interested in such an interested-party transaction, it shall notify the Bank's shareholders following the procedure set out for notification on holding a General Shareholders Meeting.

Such a notice shall be dispatched on later than on the transaction performance date and shall specify the party (parties) thereto, a beneficiary (beneficiaries), price, subject matter and other material terms and conditions or procedure for determination thereof, as well as the person (each of the persons) interested in such a transaction performance, and grounds for recognizing this person (each of the persons) being interested in the transaction performance

17.6. Persons specified in Clause 17.5 above shall be obliged to notify the Bank, within two months as from the day they become or are expected to become aware of the circumstances leading to their recognition as being interested in the Bank's performance of a transaction, of the following:

- Any legal entity where they, their spouses, parents, children, brothers and sisters (whether full- or half-blooded), adoptive parents and adopted children, and/ or persons (entities) under their control are controlling persons or entitled to give any binding instruction;

- Any legal entity where they, their spouses, parents, children, brothers and sisters (whether full- or half-blooded), adoptive parents and adopted children, and/ or persons (entities) under their control are members of any governance bodies;

- Any actual or proposed transaction where they can be recognized as related parties.

Such notices may be delivered to the Bank by registered letter with delivery receipt, by courier, and also by electronic means of communication, including fax and telegraph, and by email.

The Bank shall make the information received in such notices available to the Bank's Supervisory Council, Statutory Audit Commission of the Bank, and also an auditor of the Bank, upon its demand.

17.7. An interested-party transaction shall not be subject to any preliminary approval to be entered into.

Nevertheless, before being entered into, any interested-party transaction may be agreed with the Bank's Supervisory Council or General Shareholders Meeting upon demand of the Bank's President-Chairman of the Bank, a member of the Management Board or of the Supervisory Council, or of a shareholder (shareholders) holding more than 1 per cent of the Bank's voting shares.

A demand to hold a General Shareholders Meeting or a meeting of the Bank's Supervisory Council to resolve on entering into an interested-party transaction shall be made and considered following the procedure specified in Clause 13.11 hereof. The Supervisory Council may reject such a demand to hold a General Shareholders Meeting or a meeting of the Bank's Supervisory Council on the grounds set out in Clause 13.11 hereof, and also if at the moment of such a demand being considered, a resolution has already been made on entering into such a transaction or on refusing to enter into it. A repeated demand may be made no earlier than in three months.

The Supervisory Council shall resolve on entering into an interested-party transaction by a majority of votes of its members who are not interested in such a transaction and who are not and were not for a year preceding such a resolution:

- President-Chairman of the Bank's Management Board, or a member of the Management Board;
- A person controlling the Bank or entitled to give instructions binding for the Bank.

If the number of the Supervisory Council members, who are not interested in a transaction and meet the requirements set out in this Clause, is less than two members, a resolution on entering into such a transaction shall be made by the General Shareholders Meeting.

At the General Shareholders Meeting, a resolution on entering into an interested-party transaction shall be made by a majority of votes of all voting shareholders participating in the General Shareholders Meeting, who are not interested in such a transaction, or are under control thereof, in the following circumstances:

- The amount of a transaction or a number of interrelated transactions or the price or book value of the property to be acquired, disposed or possibly disposed under such transactions accounts for or exceeds 10 per cent of the book value of the Bank's assets as determined by its latest financial statements, except for transactions specified in the below paragraphs of this Clause;
- A transaction or a number of interrelated transactions results/result from a disposal of ordinary shares accounting for more than 2 per cent of the Bank's outstanding ordinary shares, and ordinary shares into which outstanding issue-grade share-convertible securities may be converted; or
- A transaction or a number of interrelated transactions result/ results from a disposal of preference shares accounting for more than 2 per cent of the Bank's outstanding shares, and shares into which outstanding issue-grade share-convertible securities may be converted.

If in entering a transaction which is subject to a resolution on entering into it in compliance with this Clause, all voting shareholders of the Bank are recognized interested in such a transaction, and there are also other person (persons) interests in such a transaction under Clause 17.5 hereof, a resolution on entering into such a transaction shall be made by a majority of votes of all voting shareholders of the Bank participating in the voting.

When resolving on the issue referred to in this Clause of the Charter, any General Shareholders Meeting shall be deemed qualified irrespective of the number of voting shareholders of the Bank participating in the meeting, who are not interested in such a transaction.

17.8. Alongside terms and conditions set out in Clause 4, Article 79 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies", a resolution on entering into an interested-party transaction shall specify the person (persons) interested in such a transaction performance, and the grounds for recognizing this person (each of the persons) being interested in the transaction performance.

XVIII. FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS SUPERVISION

18.1. Supervision over the Bank's financial and business activities shall be performed by the Statutory Audit Commission to be elected at every annual General Shareholders Meeting until the following annual General Shareholders Meeting. The quantitative and individual membership of the Commission shall also be set by the General Shareholders Meeting. None of the Statutory Audit Commission members can be members of the Bank's Supervisory Council, nor can they hold any other position in the Bank's governance bodies.

By a decision of the General Shareholders Meeting, existing members of the Statutory Audit Commission can get remuneration and/ or compensation for expenses related to their responsibilities. The amounts of such remuneration and compensation shall be determined by the General Shareholders Meeting.

Shares owned by Supervisory Council members or persons holding positions in the Bank's governance bodies shall not participate in voting when electing members of the Statutory Audit Commission.

18.2. The Statutory Audit Commission shall be governed by the Regulation on the Statutory Audit Commission to be approved by the General Shareholders Meeting.

Members of the Bank's Statutory Audit Commission shall be liable for not acting in good faith while performing their duties in compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

18.3. The Commission shall audit the Bank's financial and business performance at the year-end, as well as at any other time on its own initiative, by decision of the General Shareholders Meeting or Supervisory Council, or at the request of the Bank's shareholder(s) owning in the aggregate at least 10 per cent of the voting shares.

18.4. If the audit reveals that there is a threat to the Bank's or its customers' interests, or there are cases of power abuse by the Bank's officials, or in any other specific cases, the Statutory Audit Commission can demand that an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting of the Bank be called.

18.5. The Statutory Audit Commission shall submit its duly executed audit reports to the Supervisory Council and Management Board for the necessary actions to be immediately undertaken.

18.6. For the purpose of an annual audit of its annual accounting (financial) statements, the Bank shall, on an annual basis, appoint an auditing company which is not bound by any property interest with the Bank or its shareholders.

The auditor shall be approved by the General Shareholders Meeting. The Bank shall be audited in compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation and under an agreement with the audit company. Amount of the auditor's fees shall be defined by the Supervisory Council.
